Lake County Sheriff's Office Records Second Naloxone Save

On Friday March 27th Lake County Sheriff's Deputy Michael Platt responded to the 13600 block of Rockland Rd in unincorporated Lake Bluff for a reported overdose.

Upon arrival Dep. Platt found the victim Joseph R. Wolf (27) unresponsive with family members performing CPR.

Dep. Platt immediately administered Naloxone to Wolf through an auto-injector that is issued to all Patrol Deputies. Wolf regained consciousness and was transported to Advocate Condell Hospital for treatment.

"This is another example of the value of having Naloxone available for immediate use by Lake County Sheriff's Deputies" says Lake County Sheriff Mark C. Curran Jr.
